

Ownership Online from Quma Learning

Self-paced, Online, eLearning Curriculum

Quma Online delivers the same insightful learning as the award-winning book Ownership Spirit, The One Grand Key That Changes Everything Else, in a learning modality that fits the busy corporate environment. Ownership Spirit Online is a 25 module learning experience that uses the Adult Learning Model to leverage your employee's knowledge and experience to assimilate and apply the ownership thought patterns that alter behavior and ultimately brings success to your team.

Ownership Online learning design

At its foundation, the Ownership Online Course has been designed to produce real, measurable behavior change. The underlying educational design is three-fold: (1) Short bursts of engaging audio-visual instruction; (2) Mental experimentation connected to real-world situations; (3) Workplace manager coaching.

- 25 eLearning modules
- Multiple video vignettes
- Thought provoking assignments
- Coaching guides for managers

Professional Development for Today's Employees

Many employees today respond more effectively to electronic "classrooms." Online, self-paced eLearning provides their preferred optimal learning environment and lets them maximize their productive time.
